

Write better, Write faster, Write happily

Daphne Gray-Grant

Author, presenter, consultant, enthusiastic coach

Fun facts

Daphne is the mother of triplets who are now (mostly) self-supporting. Multiples run in her family.

A former night owl, Daphne accidentally turned into a morning lark 15 years ago. As a result, she understands the needs of people from both sides of the aviary...

The only way Daphne could finish her honours thesis in 1979 was by working three days without sleep (she'll never do that again!)

After finishing the book, for the first time in my life I produced more than 1,000 words of my master's thesis in less than two hours, writing that normally takes me days or even weeks.

Read this book and you will become a better writer.

—Ron Shewchuk, IABC Master Communicator, Vancouver, BC.

About Daphne

Daphne Gray-Grant grew up in the newspaper business: her parents owned a struggling weekly where she worked from the age of 16, even while completing an honours degree in political science (graduating from UBC.). In 1984, she left the family business to become a senior editor at a major metropolitan daily, where she worked for 10 years.

After the birth of her children, she transformed herself into a communications consultant, writing and editing coach. She is also author of the best-selling book 8 1/2 Steps to Writing Faster, Better and has recently (Sept. 2019) released her second book, Your Happy First Draft. Her popular weekly newsletter, Power Writing, goes to thousands of readers around the world every Tuesday morning.
